

My family and I listen daily to K-LOVE on 104.3 FM.
We have learned that the FCC has introduced a new service (LPFM) that may force FM translators off the air. We urge the FCC not to make this decision. Many listeners are encouraged by the programming on K-LOVE. We feel family values oriented stations should remain on the air. Thank you,